RECESS

PRESIDENT MCGINLEY PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: Members of the Legislature throughout the building, we are beginning to take up our afternoon session. If you will report in, we can get started on the afternoon session. Members, please check in on the green board so that we know that you are here and we can acquire our quorum for the continuation of this afternoon's session. Do you want to record your presence, Senator Clark? I didn't think you did. Members, please check in and record your presence so we can begin the afternoon session. The Clerk will record those present.

CLERK: A quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: A quorum is present. The Legislature is in session. First the Chair wants to announce that there are guests in the North balcony from Senator Fenger's District. Sorry, Senator Fenger is excused and absent today from the Legislature, but they are 90 K through 6th graders from Riverview School in Bellevue, accompanied by Mrs. Christiansen, Mrs. Panzer, Mrs. Bowditch, and Mr. Rockabrand. We welcome you to our legislative proceedings. We are discussing budget bills today in case that you can follow the debate. Mr. Clerk, read matters into the Journal.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a report from the Executive Board regarding the referral of one last interim study resolution to the Banking Committee.

Mr. President, I have a new resolution, LR 205 by Senator Wagner. (Read. See page 2425 and 2425, Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: We are ready to proceed again on appropriation bill 629. Are there further amendments, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Sieck would move to return the bill. (Read Sieck amendment found on page 2425, Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Mr. President and members of the body, would you give me that total figure there that I am asking for?

CLERK: $6,815, Senator.
